BUDGET INSURANCES

Budget risks and every other form of insurance can be arranged by Osborne J. Leach and Co., Ltd., Incorporated Insurance Brokers, 51, London Road, Stroud.

A civic service is to be held at John Street Baptist Church, Stroud, on Sunday next at 11 a.m. It will be conducted by the Rev. C. M. Hitchings, and Mr. T. Langham, chairman of Stroud Urban District Council, will read the Lesson. Public bodies are asked to meet in Lansdown, near the Council Chambers, at 10.30 a.m.

"A good number of his friends gladly contributed towards the present which was made to our late verger, Mr. G. Orchard, and we were able to send a cheque to him. Mr. Orchard has written a very grateful letter and asks us to say how much he appreciates the kind thought and action of the subscribers."—From Stroud Parish Magazine.

For the benefit of the Queen's Institute of District Nursing and the Gloucestershire Nursing Association the following gardens will be open to the public next week:—Sunday: Halewell Close, Withington, Andoversford (by kind permission of Mr. R. J. Gunther). Wednesday: East Court, Charlton Kings (Miss E. M. Bubb); Battledown Manor, Cheltenham (Mr. H. J. Mylne). Thursday: Matson House, near Gloucester (Lieut.-Col. G. D. Timmis). Friday: Poulton Priory, Fairford (Mr. A. B. Mitchell).

On Saturday the eve of the Whit-Sunday festival, festal evensong was sung at Stroud Parish Church at 7 o'clock, and on Whit-Sunday the services consisted of four celebrations of Holy Communion, choral matins at 10.30, followed by a procession and sung eucharist at 11.15. At evensong, with procession, the anthem was "Come, Holy Ghost" (Attwood). Throughout the day the officiating clergy were the Rev. R. P. Steer (vicar) and the Rev. G. E. Meek (assistant priest).

Messrs. Davis, Champion and Payne announce the following auction sales:—Tuesday next, June 9th, at the Grey House, Rodborough Common, furniture and effects on the premises.—Wednesday, June 10th, at the Liberal Hall, Lansdown, Stroud, the late Miss E. Hyett's furniture and effects removed to the Hall for convenience of sale.—Wednesday, June 10th, at the Crown and Anchor Hotel, Stonehouse, "Hillside," Pearcecroft Road, Stonehouse, and a shop and dwelling house situate in High Street, Stonehouse.—Tuesday, June 16th, at the White Horse Inn, Cainscross, the shop and dwelling house situate in Cainscross, for many years in the occupation of the late Miss E. Hyett.—Friday, June 26th, at the Subscription Rooms, Stroud, bakery, dwelling house and cottages situate in Bowbridge Lane, Stroud.—Friday, June 26th, at the Subscription Rooms, Stroud, Alkerton Grange, Eastington.—Towards the end of June, at the George Hotel, Nailsworth, "Lavender Cottage," Downend, Horsley.—Towards the end of June, at the George Hotel, Nailsworth, "The Grove," Watledge.—At an early date, "The Bungalow," Cowcombe, Chalford.

... on Monday morning about 8 o'clock en route for Weston-super-Mare. This consisted of the scholars and teachers of the Paganhill Baptist Sunday School, together with a number of parents and friends, and the journey was made in motor coaches provided by the Red and White Bus Co. The weather was favourable, and only a couple of showers interfered with the day, the children indulging in paddling, bathing and other amusements.

Tea was provided in the Methodist Sunday School in The Boulevard, by the kindness of that church, and the return journey was made by about 10.30 p.m.

In the unavoidable absence of the Superintendent, Mr. Smith, the leadership of the party devolved upon Mr. C. Hampton, with the school secretaries, Miss Tyler and Miss King, and it is a matter for deep gratification that no accident or mishap occurred to spoil the day's outing, everyone apparently being thoroughly satisfied with the trip.
