
MR. S. S. MARLING'S 82nd BIRTHDAY

Mr. S. S. Marling, of Littleworth House, Amberley, member of the well-known Gloucestershire family, celebrated his 82nd birthday on Friday.

A brother of the late Sir Percival Marling, V.C., he is exceedingly active in public work, particularly so with the Stonehouse Bench of magistrates of which he is chairman.

He is also President of the Stroud General Hospital, chairman of the Diocesan Board of Finance, a member of the County Education Committee and a governor of several schools in the Stroud area, notably the one which bears his family name.
