

The birds chased the dogs—and before they knew where they were they were ringed and released. This is part of the work carried out by the Trust in their study of migration.

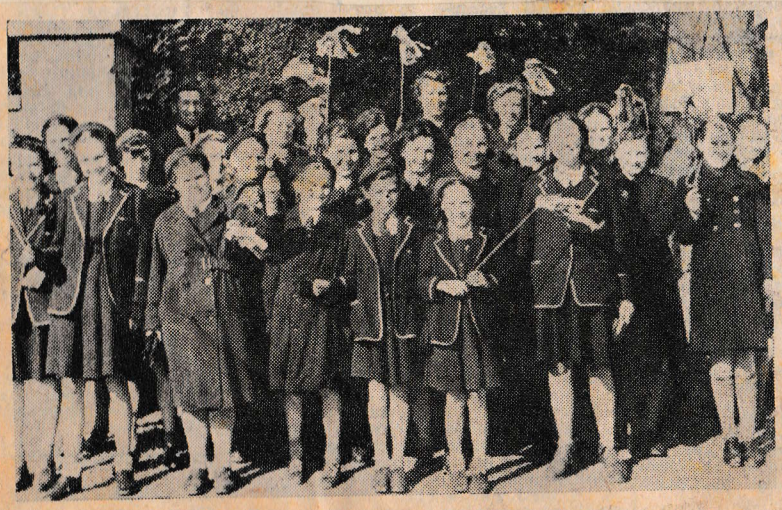

After meeting the officers and members of the Stroud Urban Council Princess Elizabeth is escorted to the train by Mr. F. L. Daniels, Chairman of the Council. (See this week's "Gloucester Journal" for a comprehensive series of pictures of the visit of Princess Elizabeth to Stroud and Slimbridge).

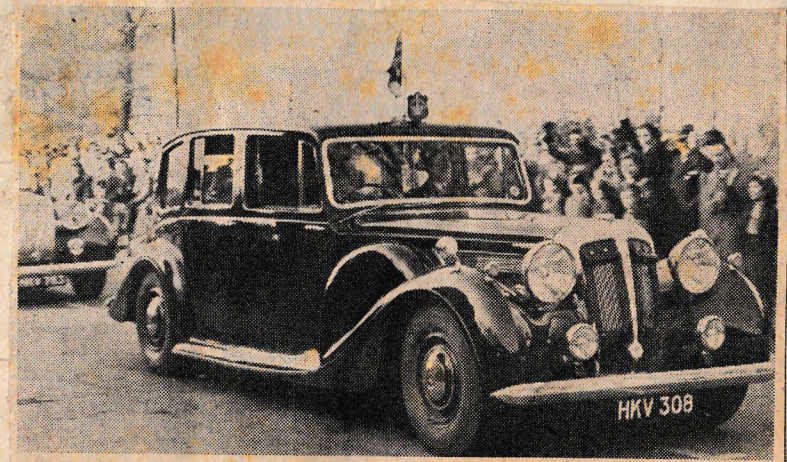

Princess Elizabeth meets Councillors E. W. Mason and E. C. Peckham.

Her Royal Highness signs the Distinguished Visitors' Book at the Imperial Hotel, Stroud. Mr. F. H. Coucher, the Manager, is on her left.

This party from the Girls' High School were early on the scene.

The Royal Car at the Canal Bridge, Eastington.