

PRINCESS SIGNS VISITORS' BOOK

Princess Elizabeth signs her name in the visitors' book at the Imperial Hotel, Stroud. She is watched by the manager, Mr. F. H. Coucher and Mr. F. L. Daniels, Chairman of the Council.

This week's issue of the "Gloucester Journal" will contain four pages of pictures of the visit of Princess Elizabeth to Stroud and Slimbridge.

ANN, THE BADGER, was shy and stayed close to Miss Perry Cameron, daughter of the manager, when she was introduced to Princess Elizabeth at Slimbridge on Saturday. (centre) is with the Princess.
