

The rooster's return

OLD and young alike celebrated the return of the golden weather vane to Woodchester's parish church following a major revamp of the belfry. Pictured are the village's oldest and youngest bellringers Lance Cordwell (84) and 10-year-old Leah Haslam holding the freshly-gilded weather cock, which was replaced on the 123-ft church spire by steeplejack Jeremy Spirit.

► Full story and more pictures: Page Nine

1/10/97